

Electrical Engineering Department

Program Specific Outcomes (PSO)

1. To develop acquaintance and conceptual knowledge in students supported with practical exposure in the area of non conventional energy sources and utilization.
2. To empower the students with engineering concepts along with aptitude skills for developing competency to succeed in competitive examinations.
3. To provide hands on experiences and exposure to the aspirant students in the field of embedded systems.