

Information and Technology

Program Specific Objectives (PSOs)

- To prepare the students for successful career in IT sector satisfying local & global Industrial requirement by adopting innovative teaching learning technique.
- To provide skills for analyzing, designing, development, maintenance & testing of software.
- To provide an opportunity for working on multidisciplinary project.
- To provide efficient communication skill, team work, leadership quality, attitude, moral & ethical values & ability to utilize IT skill in broader social context.
- To provide and encourage students for post graduate studies & research work.